

Have shown that Robert Elliot as a witness to the estate of Arthur Alger, and listed as joining the Black Point (Scarborough) Garrison, Robert Elliot was a part of the King Philip war in the Black Point region in 1776.

¹ Nathaniel Fryer was born in Boston; supposed to be the son of James of Cambridge, removed to Portsmouth, and lived at Great Island. He was a rep., councillor, judge of probate, and filled many other important offices. He left two daughters, Elizabeth, who married Judge Hinckes; Sarah, married Robert Elliot. He died August 13, 1705. (See N. H. His. Coll., VIII, 353). Councillor James Fryer was his eldest son. (Wentworth Gen., I, 103). At the attack on Richmond's Island, by the Indians, in Oct. 1676, a vessel was there from Portsmouth, belonging to Nathaniel Fryer, sent at the request of Walter Gendall, to preserve the property on the island. The vessel was driven on shore by the enemy, and the crew of eleven taken prisoners, among them was James Fryer, son of the owner, a young man of Portsmouth, who afterwards died of the wounds received in that engagement. In Kittery, Charles Frost was Captain; Roger Plaisted, Lieutenant; and John Gattery, Ensign. In York, Job Alcock, Lieutenant; and Arthur Bragdon, Ensign. In Wells, John Littlefield, Lieutenant; and Francis Littlefield, Jr., Ensign. In Scarborough, Andrew Alger, Lieutenant. In Falmouth, George Ingersol, Lieutenant.

In the General Court held in Boston in May, 1669, there were three representatives from Yorkshire, viz.: Charles Frost, from Kittery; Peter Wyer (Weare), from York; and Richard Colicott, from Falmouth and Scarborough.

In 1670 the interior regulations of Yorkshire were completed. Thomas Danforth, an experienced assistant of ten years, was designated to preside in the County Court; and Elias Stilman, of Great Island; John and Richard Cutts, of Kittery; and three or four others in different towns

Shows names Frost, Alger, John and Richard Cutt.

Robert Elliot; Will

Basic assumptions;

1. This is the will of Robert Elliot and not two different Robert Elliots. Such as a Robert Eliot and a Robert Elliott.
2. Spellings are taken to be correct for their date. Not Elliott for Elliot.
3. Land which is past down to descendents, is land which Robert Elliot has lived on at one time in his life.
4. Son-in-laws are son-in-laws at the date given.
5. Last name of son-in-laws may have been used to name land which lasts into this date.
6. Establishment of these in-laws, and land will be accepted that Robert Elliot has a prehistory with this land and in-laws.

Sarah Pepperrell wife of Charles Frost⁴, was a daughter of Captain Andrew and Jane (Eliot) Pepperrell, and was born Dec. 14, 1708; married Sept. 12, 1723. The sister of Sarah was Margery, born March 25, 1712, who married Capt. William son of Lieut.-Gov. John Wentworth, the royalist. They were the only children of Capt. Andrew Pepperrell, the brother of Sir William. Jane Eliot (wife of Captain Andrew Pepperrell) was a daughter of Robert Eliot of New Castle, who was an eminent merchant and member of the Provincial Council of New Hampshire for many years prior to 1700 and was sister of Robert Eliot of Kittery, graduate of Harvard college, 1701. It is from this Robert Eliot that the town of Eliot takes its name, as do many of his descendants in the Leighton, Frost and connected families.

Robert Eliot did not utilize the same spelling as his father Robert Elliot with the two “l”s and also spelled it as Ellet, common spellings during the time in Fermanagh, this is utilizing records.

Collections of the New Hampshire Historical Society, Volume 8
By New Hampshire Historical Society

As indicated by the legal record. He it is felt the Robert Sr leaned toward the Ellet spelling in the Scarborough, where it is felt there would be a greater number of Scots, used for mill work along the coast. It was best to build the mills utilizing stream power, because of the strength of it, then ship products such as lumber, and ground grain from the region by boat, but these wilderness mills in the New Hampshire, and Maine, and Otter Neck utilized indentures.

The University will establish a new fellow-ship this spring, the third to provide a graduating Harvard senior with a year of study at England's Cambridge University, according to a University release.

The winner of the John Eliot Scholarship, named for a 1622 graduate of Cambridge's Jesus College who went on to found Roxbury Latin School and become a Harvard Overseer, will j

When Robert Jr went to Harvard College he started to spell the name the way Harvard spelled it. John Eliot is known to be the apostle to the Indians, and he played an important part in the beginnings of Harvard College, and still recognized to this day. Could be where Cambridge received its name from Cambridge University.

After Robert Jr went to Harvard the name from Ellet to Elliot became Eliot.

Date.	Grantor.	Grantee.	Instr	Folio.	Description.
1702, May 10	ELLIOT (Eliot), Robert	George Vaughan	Deed	117	100 acres (with meadow formerly Henry Watts') on south side of river at Blue point; also Western marshes with the marsh called Crooked lane, and the land which was Edgecom's, viz. 50 acres of upland and 50 acres of marsh; also 100 acres formerly Griffin's; also the Round about marsh in Scarborough.
1705, June 15	ELLIOT, Robert senior	Robert Eliot junior	Deed	55	All his land on Champernown's island with house and fences reserving the right during his life to fell woods and underwoods; also 4 cows, 4 oxen, 1 horse, 1 mare with free pasturage for the same; also hay for winter use. If his son die without male issue, said island shall return to said Robert Elliot, senior, and to his heirs forever, in Kittery.
1709, Feb. 10	ELLIOT, Robert	Timothy Gerrish and Sarah Gerrish	Deed	163	Champernown's island, except 80 acres, with houses and all sheep and cattle, reserving right to cut wood or timber. If his daughter Sarah Gerrish die without issue, said property shall return to him and his heirs, in Kittery.
1707, Feb. 20	ELLIOT, Robert et ux. EMERY, Daniel, see James Emery	Andrew Pepperrell	Deed	99	90 acres near head of Spruce creek, in Kittery.

On the above; it is Robert Elliot senior, but Robert Eliot junior. The Vaughan, Gerrish, and Pepperrell are relations to Robert Elliot Sr daughters which are the in-laws. These would be of the children of Margery (Batson) Young Elliot. The are still a lot of place names in the region of Eliot, Batson, Pepperrell, Gerrish, and Vaughan, felt to be derived from those above. Even above where Elliot (Eliot) the transcriber wants to spell it in a manner which he thinks is correct, but in the Portsmouth region, I as and Elliott say is Elliot evolved from the ulster Ellot which is correct for Senior.

Robert Eliot Jr, did not issue a son so the land did not travel through him.

And example of what this region is doing with the name Dixon, have an aunt with the name Dixon from Mt Ayr, Iowa is as follows.

the Thompsons is desired as a genealogical help and interest.

Who was ANNA HATCH, of Kittery, who married Dea. Samuel Small, who was the son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Heard) Small, and grandson of Francis Small. James Heard, father of Elizabeth Heard, was a military officer. Is there anything to show that Ensign James Heard was in actual service?

WINDMILL HILL. Mason's Hill was originally known as Windmill Hill. Here, about 1700, John Pray built a huge Windmill on the highest rise of land, which remained till about 1750. The name of the locality was changed after Mr. Mason erected his house there.

ELIOT. From whom our town takes its name. Robert Eliot, gentleman. 1658. Subscribed for ye Maintenance of ye Minister, 10 shil.

One can see the name Dixon in the York County, Maine, region as being spelled Dickson Robert Eliot, gentleman of 1658 never existed, in 1659 it was Robert Ellet which became Robert Elliot.

The Harvard effect of genealogical research which my family the Ellot/Ellet/Elliott/Elliott but never the Eliot family had to deal with for over three centuries, and still to this day.

In utilizing the characteristics of my forefather Daniel Elet/Elliot of the testimony. In utilizing outside references which he utilized the words of Wm Rayment Jr and Good Ingersol, and the words of the affected, to support his point, that the accusations "were done out of sport", and the best of Puritan educated in and Anglo European stratified society, where people only seem to accept knowledge from those at the top of the stratified structure, being a descendant of non stratified border receivers that believe in self government and have the analytical capabilities of my forefathers, it is felt Harvard which believes in witches wins, but since doing this as a hobby, and the father's have proven truths, will go by my fathers, and say Robert Elliot Sr, went by Elliot towards the end of his life and not the English Eliot. People who believe his name is Eliot is because of the Harvard effect.

There are genealogical researches which want to put the authority of knowledge in hands of others, but I am doing my father's father and that becomes personal, and from what has been past down to me I am able to look up on the Elwald/Ellot/Ellet/Elliot/Elliott line.

It was a majority of English speaking Americans which ascribed to the Harvard effect in 1692, and it is felt for my research if a thousand of pages are written with strong references, though verification of dad's work through YDNA, because of the Harvard effect, on today's genealogical environment I will not be believed. Part of this Harvard effect, is that people want to believe the line is English and not a border Scot. When concepts are accepted as being not true then that is the beginning I want, because they still are a concept, only when they can be shown as being not true the Harvard effect is not in use.

ELIOT INCORPORATION PAPERS.

FRANCIS KEEFE.

As a most valuable addition to our local history, we have gathered from the archives of the State House, Boston, the Documents that relate to the Incorporation of Eliot.

The story of the "Upper Parish of Kittery," is a fascination, whether we glance backward to the scattered homes of 1621, or gather up the facts of 1810.

By the earliest Paper which we print to-day, it will be seen that Eliot became a Parish, 17 July, 1660. It became a Town, March 1, 1810.

There is a tradition that we are the namesake of the historic Eliots, whose ancestor,—ROBERT ELIOT, of Newcastle,—was a gentleman of wealth and public and social life; and whose children were blended in marriage with our own important and leading families. When the hour of our Incorporation came, the Rev'd JOHN ELIOT, of Boston, an intimate friend of Gen. Andrew Pepperell Fernald of our parish, desired that we take his family cognomen. He promised the town a meeting house bell, as the christening gift. Gen. Fernald strongly seconded and advocated his request. And so we have been called ELIOT to this day.

In regard to the bell,—no belfrey was ever builded, and so the bestowment was never made!

This is the tradition. And an interest has been quickened by our Historical Society to confirm this story of our baptism. At a later date these confirmations may be gathered into the permanancy of type.

Above it should be noted that the Scottish name Dixon (Nixon) has been changed to the English spelling of Dickson in a similar manner Ellot was changed to Elliot then to Eliot. The neck of land was know as Eliot Neck way before the town of Eliot existed, and it is felt that people traveling up river from Kittery would go through Eliot Neck to get to Eliot, and Eliot Neck is on the border of Kittery and Eliot.

John Green, Humphrey Axel his brother-in-law, and Mary [Green] Axel wife of Humphrey, migrated to South Carolina. And they sold their father's [John Green,] lands at this point of our River. Let us glean the story from the books, 1704-5:—

“ I John Green of South Caralina, planter, the Son and heir of John Green of Kittery, Together with us Humphrey Axall and Mary his wife, Set over unto Peter Dickson One Lot of Land near the boyling Rock containing thirteen Acres, bounded on the west with ye River of Piscataqua ; by the Land of Christian Remock on the North ; on the Land of Peter Dickson and Thomas ffernald on ye South ; and on ye land of Peter Dickson on the East.”

They sell Peter Dickson another lot at another point, still known by its early name—Bolt Hill—and we have not found an earlier allusion to this local name :

“ One piece of Land at a place called bolt hill, bounded on the land of Steuen Paul on the west; ; on ye east on ye land of John Spinney ; on Waymouth Lisson land on the North west ; on Land comonly called Cutts Land on the North. And on ye Land of John Thomas on ye South land of John Spinney ; on Waymouth Lisson land on the North west ; on Land comonly called Cutts Land on the North ; And on ye Land of John Tomson on ye South,—be it ffifty Acres more or less.”

John Green, and Humphrey Axel, are of the families which went to South Carolina with Elizabeth Cutt Elliot Whetherick, and her sons Robert (after Robert Cutt) Elliot, and Champernowne (after Capt Champernowne) Elliot.

In 1704-5, March 4, Peter Dickson sold these Bolt Hill acres to John Staples.

We also find another record, dated—

South Carrolina, Jan. 29, 1704-5. We John Green, Humphrey Axell and Mary his wife, have ordained appointed and constituted our well-beloved friend, Mr. Peter Dickson, to be our true and Lawfull Attorney for and in our name as Joyntly and Severally to act for us or either of us.”

Thus have we taken a historic walk on our River's rim; and before we bring the review of the early homesteads to an end, we would like to turn our faces again to the Long Reach households of the Tobeys, Libbeys, Foggs and Hammonds, or as they are called,—Hammond & Co.—There is one more and an earlier proprietorship of that stretch of land which gives an antiquarian relish, a breath of romance to that section.

In 1685 Humphrey Elliot, et ux (and wife which is the step daughter of Champernowne), half of Champernown's Island (now Gerrish Island, after Timothy Gerrish son-in-law to Robert Sr). The Robert Eliot spelling is rare in the deeds for Robert Sr, and likely not the way Robert Sr spelled it, as can be seen Elliot (Eliot) where Eliot is a spelling correction by the transcriber.

¹The records of the church in Boston show that on the seventeenth day of the tenth month, 1681, a little more than six months after the baptism of her daughter Bridget, wife of William Screven, Mrs. Mary Cutts, widow of Robert Cutts (who died the last of June, 1674), was baptized in Boston and united with the Baptist church in Boston. On the same day Leonard Drowne of Kittery was baptized. Five additional residents of Kittery, viz., George Litten, Timothy Davis, Wm. Addams, Humphrey Axall and John Morgradge were baptized and received as members of the Baptist church in Boston on the twentieth day of the twelfth month, 1681. In July, 1682, four others, ——— Landall, Richard Cutts, Sarah Morgandy and Robert Williams of Kittery were baptized and received to membership in the Boston church. Richard Cutts was the oldest son of Robert and Mary Cutts, and a brother of Mrs. Screven. Sarah Morgandy—so the name seems to be written—was probably the wife of John Morgradge, as the same spelling, Morgandy, occurs in Backus' list of the constituent members of the church, while in the Boston records his name is plainly recorded as John Morgradge.

HIGHWAY OVER ELIOT NECK.

Copied from Kittery Records by Joseph H. Dixon.

WE whose names are under written by complaint and request of some of the Inhabitants of the neck of Land lying in the lower part of the long Reach, also by a vote past at a general town Meeting held at Kittery, March 18th, 1694-5 for laying out a highway for the convenience of the inhabitants and benefit of the Town and Country, have viewed and laid out a highway of two Rods wide, where the land will afford it, from the Country road behind Stephen Paul's to Peter Dixon's, running from Mr. Remick's fence along by Humphrey Axel's orchard, in that highway we have had lately, which the said Humphrey hath lately fenced in, and so the highway to run from Peter Dixon's to Samuel Fernald's, one rod wide from the Bank as straight as may be with convenience, and ail to run by the River-side.

Kittery, March 30th, 1692.

Jan., 1725-6, he married Elizabeth Harford. On the 15th of July, 1727, as appears by will of Robert Elliot, on file in the probate judge's office, Charleston, S. C., the following were his children: Artemus, Humphrey, Dorothy and Elizabeth. The first named married Mary Burnham. Humphrey married Catharine Booth, a daughter of Robert and Martha (Elliott) Booth, and granddaughter of William and Esther Elliott of Berkeley.* He speaks also of Elizabeth Witherick (née Cutt) as his "beloved mother." These, so far as they go, are interesting facts in tracing the descent of a family who have held high positions wherever they happened to reside.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTICES OF ELIOTS.

Mr. ——— Eliot of Ipswich, Mass., was lost on his way home in 1634. He had been wandering for six days; and when found by an Indian, was almost dead.

FRANCIS Eliot, of Braintree, was admitted a freeman in 1641; and was chosen deacon Oct. 12, 1753. His son, JOHN, was born April 17, 1650.

MARY Eliot, of Braintree, married Caleb Hobart, of Hingham, April, 1662.

THOMAS Elliot was a citizen of Swansey, Mass., in 1669.

ROBERT Eliot, of Portsmouth, was a counselor of New Hampshire in 1683.

JOHN Elliot and ABRAHAM Elliot were members of the Third Congregational Society in Portsmouth, N. H., in 1761. John afterwards became a ruling elder, and Abraham a deacon.

ROBERT Elliott in New York, and WILLIAM Elliot in Philadelphia, are subscribers to a life of Washington in 1807.

Note; John Elliot and Abraham Elliot were members of the Third Congregational Society in Portsmouth, NH in 1761. Confirms relation.

The above given which may lead to extrapolation that Richard could also be a son of Humphrey, something to be considered for a researcher at some future date.

After the names Robert, Richard, and John are used if the Robert Elliot Sr family could recall its Tullykelter roots the next name to be used is William.

If the name traveled with Robert and Champernowne to South Carolina, it could end up hidden in the records of another William Elliott of the region.

A William Elliott donated land for a Baptist church, in the Charleston region.

Note; (née Cutt) means Cutt is Elizabeth Witherick maiden name, not necessarily "beloved mother" though she is treat as a "belove mother"

Will of William Adams, glover, of Charles Town, South Carolina, made June 1, 1707, gave children, William, John, Jane and Lydia Adams, all of his estate, real and personal, after deducting all charges for their bringing up, to be equally divided between them; appointed Peter Guerard and William Elliott, executors; directed that his son, William, be bound as an apprentice until twenty-one to the said William Elliott; directed that his daughter, Jane, live with her sister, Eliza Grimball, wife of Thomas Grimball, until she should reach the age of eighteen and that she should be "brought up to her needle"; directed that his daughter, Lydia, be brought up until she reach the age of eighteen and be "put to school to learn" by Mrs. Elizabeth Wetherick and that the executors agree with Mrs. Wetherick for the same. Witnesses: William Sadler, John Child, Timothy Bellamy, Thomas Hepworth, Recorded July 22, 1707. (Page 133.)

William Elliott has directed Mrs. Elizabeth Wetherick to school a young lady, in a many a son or grandson would do.

Something in which I can not come to a conclusion on and it may afford more research.

Can and need not make a conclusion on above information, of what some researcher may have a need for in the future.
