Porpoise, Wells, Maine, where he took the oath of allegiance to Mass., July 5, 1653, and was constable in 1661. He left a will which was probated in March 1669-70. This will mentions father-in-law, John Sanders (to whom he committed his little daughter Elizabeth<sup>2</sup>), wife Sarah, and sons John<sup>2</sup> and Peter<sup>2</sup> Turbot.

Children:

i. Hannah,<sup>2</sup> evidently left no issue; perhaps m. about 1669 as first wife, Roger<sup>2</sup> Plaisted; he m. second, Hannah Furber and was killed in 1675, leaving two children by her.

ii. John,<sup>2</sup> b. in 1651; on his father's death he was bound to Francis Champernowne; in July, 1672, he became administrator of his father's estate; according to York Deeds, Book XII, p. 141, "he was eldest son of Peter<sup>1</sup> Turbot and the only one who left issue"; York Deeds and Probate Records of Middlesex Co. show that he married about 1672 Mary,<sup>2</sup> daughter of Richard<sup>1</sup> and Margery (Batson) Young of Cape Porpoise; John<sup>2</sup> Turbot died about 1680 and his widow Mary married before 1687 Emanuel Davis of Wells; they moved to Newton, Mass., about 1690 with her children. John<sup>2</sup> and Mary Turbot had a son John,<sup>3</sup> who died s.p. in

1661, Nov. 8 | CHAMPERNOWNE, Francis | Sarah Turbutt | Indenture

I. 115 | Apprenticeship of her son Peter for the term of eleven years.

It is felt that Sarah Tubutt would not have indenture son Peter to Francis Champernowne, or would have the authority to if her husband was still alive Nov. *, 1661.

It should be noted that Peter Turbet's, oldest son John was also bond to Francis Champernowne, and it was felt when this bond was over he could administer the estate. July, 1672.

It should be noted in 1672 John Turbet, son of Sarah Sanders, marries, Mary daughter of Richard and Margery (Batson) Young. So John Turbet the son of Sarah (Saunders) Turbet, is the son-in-law to Margery (Batson) Young. Mary married second and Emmanuel Davis who it is felt the son-in-law when Robert Elliot was married to Margery.

[DANIEL GOODWIN married, first, Margaret, daughter of Thomas Spencer of Kittery, Maine: secondly, Mrs. Sarah, daughter of John Sanders, and widow of Peter Turbet. After Turbet's death in 1661, she was courted by Robert Elliot, and this courtship was entered into with so much fervency and earnestness that the marriage was considered certain. Accordingly Elliot, as being the sure future husband of the widow, was appointed administrator on Turbet's estate. But the Court Records show that, in July, 1772. "Whereas "former administration was granted Robert Elliot "on Peter Turbet's estate, deceased, in relation to "his marrying the said Turbet's widow, which he "not doing, the said administration is null, and "this Court, from the desire of said Peter Turbet's "widow, grants administration to his son John." In 1679, Daniel Goodwin, planter, conveyed land to his daughter, Mrs Daniel Stone, and also to his son, Daniel. In 1683, he conveyed land, in the parish of Berwick, town of Kittery, Maine, to his sons, Thomas and James. In 1797, he con-

Do accept the concept above that Peter Turbet died 1661, and that soon after that Robert Elliot had administration of the estate of the deceased Peter Turbet with the concept of him marrying Peter Turbet's widow Sarah Sanders.

New England, though the exact date of the voyage has not been ascertained. He does not seem to have remained with the family at Gloucester, for we find him at Kittery, York county, Maine, as early as 1652. He was a prominent citizen of that place, a surveyor, innkeeper, and large landed proprietor. Daniel Goodwin married (first) at Kittery, Margaret Spencer, a daughter of Thomas and Patience (Chadbourne) Spencer. He married (second), after March, 1670, Sarah (Sanders) Turbet, widow of Peter Turbet. His death occurred about 1712. Children of Daniel Goodwin by the first marriage: Daniel, born 1656;

XIII. ELIZABETH CUTT, daughter of Robert and Mary (Hoel) Cutt, married Humphrey Elliot before July 13, 1685; her step-father, Francis Champernowne, gave at that date a deed of land to "Elizabeth Elliot, daughter of Mary, my beloved wife," etc. Her son, Champernowne Elliot, is mentioned in her step-father's will made Nov. 16, 1686. Her husband is thought to have been a son of Robert Elliot of colonial fame, by his first wife, Margery Batson. Some have doubted this, but it seems to be a reasonable conclusion. Mr. and Mrs. Elliot removed to South Carolina, at or about the same time that their brother-in-law, Rev. Wm. Screven, went on account of persecution. After the death of her husband Mrs. Elliot married again, her second husband being Thomas Witherick. It is not known whether her son Champernowne was married or not. He is mentioned in the 3<sup>d</sup> volume of the Statutes at large of

The above deed transfer August 20, 1700 shows her husband as being Robert Witherick, and the she is now in South Carolina. Shows connections to the Richard Cutt.

By the time Humphrey died he is said to have Robert and Champernowne. Since Champernowne inherits in Francis Champernowne will, it is felt it both living the oldest inherits.

The above shows, that Humphrey Elliot, et ux. (family) receives half of Champnoun's Island. Since family received (Champernoun Elliot), it is felt that in 1685 Humphrey Elliot was not alive or of very poor health which likely would in up in death.

It is felt that Humphrey was born about the time he was courting Sarah Saunders.

Also it is felt that Margery Batson Elliot, what is known and accepted to be Robert first wife, that Humphrey was born to soon to be hers through this marriage.

Sarah Sanders Turbet is felt to be a household servant for the Francis Champernowne family, with her child Peter apprenticed, and son John bonded to the Champernowne. Also Humphrey Elliot and Champernowne Elliot are Champernowne names, not standard Elliot names. It is felt the Champernownes raised Humphrey, and adopted his family where Humphrey's family inclusive of wife Elizabeth and Champernowne received the inheritance.

Yes, Robert managed the estate of Peter Turbet husband to Sarah, but he did not marry Sarah. Robert also married a Margery Batson who at one time had son-in-law John Turbat, oldest son of Sarah Sanders. Make your own conclusions, on who's child Humphrey is;
