

Finding Daniel Elliott's father because of my father;

A rough draft by Mark Elliott melliott@gallup.unm.edu a great-grandson of Daniel 6/28/04

I am named after my grandfather Mark Elliott his son's name, my father's name, is Loren S. Elliott and it is because of him I am writing this paper.

Though I do not consider myself a genealogist my dad is a top genealogist. He has done extensive research on the Elliott family and other parts of his ancestry. My dad is not a professional genealogist, but by calling him an amateur genealogist, would be like calling him amateur bridge player. At the age of eighty he acquired enough master points to be rated in the top five hundred in the nation. A lot of professional bridge players would like that rating.

As a graduate agricultural engineer Loren worked for the United States Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation for thirty years. This had some influence on me, because I am graduate of the University of Utah, Salt Lake in Mining Engineering, though I worked as a mining engineer, am teaching mathematics at the secondary and part time at the university in the four corners area of the United States. Of course living in Salt Lake City I would use the resources of The Church of Latter Day Saints (Mormons) to help my dad with his research. I do recall because of my open approach to genealogy, it seemed professional genealogists were eager to help me.

The basics of the approach which is to be used to search for Daniel's father;

Land; (following the land is the main approach)

The first approach to be used is to find possible locations of the families of Elliott in the Salem area in 1692. At that time I was able to find two locations shown on a 1692 map. The first would be the Francis Elliott property in Boxford or Rowley Village, the second would be the Henry Herrick /Andrew Elliott property in Beverly formerly Bass River

I need to intercede; but it is part of the approach which is being used. Good genealogists know this even though it is felt Daniel Elliott did right by not supporting the killing of witches, it may not be so for the rest of the family. When you do genealogy looking to tie yourself to great leader would bring falsehoods to it.

There may be a lot of disagreements with me on this point and that will be fine, and it comes from something I read about Nathaniel Hawthorne that he added the 'w' to his last name because he wanted to show disaffiliation with his ancestors John Hathorne the judge who persecuted witches and John Hathorne's father William the judge who persecuted members of The Religious Society of Friends (Quakers). It is felt Daniel dropped the last 't' from the family name only to be added by later generations. Moving to Framingham a colony to the far west, it is felt Daniel wanted to show disaffiliation with his family in the way of dropping the 't' and not using any close family names for his children.

Those who do not want to read on may STOP at this time because proper genealogy doesn't always paint the picture you want it to.

The best records I feel are the ones written by the family themselves. Records such as from a Bible would be good to have.

I noted a trend to name the oldest son after the father.

Land records are good but extended families may be on them.
Church records and court records (vital records) rate well also.
Birth records were considered accurate.

History books and family connections may have the most errors.

Boxford or Beverly where is Daniel from?

Daniel s origins in Salem it is felt from the family of Fancies Elliott in Boxford or Andrew Elliott family in Beverly. Births records of The First Church of Salem with Rev. Samuel Paris and Deacon Nathaniel Ingersoll;

At first glance it would indicate it would indicate Daniel would be from the Francis Elliott family since they both obviously go to the same church and with a church in Beverly you who think Daniel would be attending it if he lived in Beverly, but considering the Salem Church being the first establish one an close to the Cloyeses he may be attending from Beverly.

Given witchcraft trial records;

Sworne in Court June 2'd 1692

Anna Elliott could be very easily Hannah Elliott, Daniel s wife, especially went his wife s mother is believed to be Anne Littlefield (AKA Hanah). This would also indicate Daniel is from the Francis Elliott family especially since she is equated with Wm Hobbs & Isack Nicholls (for losing her a child as above records show) which most likely live near them.

But it is felt there is better information indicating Daniel is from the Andrew Elliott family.

Given witch trial records;

(Daniel Elliott for Elizabeth Proctor)

the testimony of Daniel elet aged 27 years or thereabouts who testifieth & saith that I being at the hous of leutennant ingasone one the 28 of march in the year 1692 thear being preasent one of the afflicted persons which cryed out and said thears goody procter William raiment juner being theare present told the garle he beleved she lyed for he saw nothing then goody ingerson told the garl she told aly for theare was nothing: then the garl said that she did it for sport they must have some sport

(Essex County Archives, Salem -- Witchcraft Vol. 1 Page 27)

This is probably considered the most important set of records which establishes Daniel Elliot.

The people;

Daniel elet is Daniel Elliot

leutennant ingasone one is Nathaniel Ingesoll 1st decon of the church goody proctor is Elizabeth Proctor
William raiment juner is William Rayment Jr.
goody ingerson is probably the wife of Nathaniel Ingersoll

Location; House of Nathaniel Ingersoll probably in the Danver s First Church Parish

Date; March 28, 1692 Daniel s age; 27 there abouts (est b. 1665)

Elizabeth Proctor and husband John Proctor were convicted of witchcraft. John was hung Elizabeth was not because she was pregnant.

William Rayment Jr. is a close neighbor to the Andrew Elliott family. In records listed as being 26 about a year younger than Daniel, and after naming his first son William his second son was name Daniel before the witch trials. Daniel is not a very common name for the day.

It should be noted these records are from the Beverly Church (John Hale Rev.) , the records of Daniel s were form the Danver Church (Samuel Parris Rev.).

The Proctors also have a foothold in the Beverly area. Doing research online in Beverly link, with in that link there were not very many families having links but both the Proctor and Rayment families had links. The Rayment family had very top notch link which I used extensively.

Daniel became a builder and operator of grist mills after leaving the Salem area. The highway to Salem (now called Elliott St.) went a very short distance from the Andrew Elliott property to the Dodge s grist mill. There were marriages between Elliott and Woodbury, and Woodbury and Dodge. Note the names above; William, John, Sarah, Ebenezer, Hannah, Andrew, common names of the Elliott from this area. The Dodge, Woodbury, Elliott families in this region originally came from the East Coker, Somerset, England so their connections are very strong.

Jonathan b. 8-16-1701 Framingham

Peter b. 11-25-1704 Framingham, Ma

(info from J.C. Elliott who maintains a web sight on the Elliott family from Sutton, MA)

Note the names of the children an how they compare with the above.

From Sidney Perley, The History of Salem, Massachusetts (1928) you can see how names are linked together. Note the grist mill s property is own by John Dodge. Of Daniel s children one is Jonathan and the another is John.

Remember the name Henry Herrick it has already, and I consider him a connecting point for the Elliott family of Beverly.

The first Elliott in the Bass River (Beverly) area from my research his name is William.

Recalled finding a William Elliott born in East Choker, Somerset England in 1627 in a family line on the internet.

The Bond-Servant
The Scarlet Letter

Summarized from "Colonists in Bondage: Indentured Servants in America," by Barbara Bigham, Early American Life, October, 1979, v10n5, p30-33, 83-4.

An "indentured bond-servant" was one who signed a contract to work as a servant for a period of years, in return for passage to America, clothing, room, and board, and at the end of the period to receive sufficient land and tools to start as an independent farmer. In some cases, the migration was forced (or as a form of punishment for crimes) and included some children. The term "indenture" refers to the fact that the contract was "indented", or torn in half, so each party could keep a signed copy.

Note; it shows Andrew Elliott Quartus (Latin for forth) is born on 7/11/1683 (the seventh month in 1683 is September) (7-hept, 8-oct, 9-no, 10-dec)
I accept this information to be as accurate as it can get because Andrew II is the first clerk of Beverly, MA (Bass River) which became a community in 1668, and most likely recorded the information down.

Andrew II states above Andrew III is his only son. Who dies drowning as a master of a boat on September 12, 1688 at about 10 in the moming. It also state Andrew III is his only son, whose mother Andrew II wife is Grace bom in East Coker, Somerset, England.

First Branch the Andrews Andrew I

Joan PATCH-841 was born 14 Mar 1601/1602 in South Petherton, Somerset, England and was christened 14 Mar 1602 in So Petherton, Somerset, England. She died about 1649 in East Coker, Somerset.[Notes]

Joan married (MRIN:472) Andrew ELLIOT-1317 on 5 Jan 1621.

(Noted; part of family made it to Beverly, MA)

(It should be noted, some people think Andrew II father is William, but the evidence of having a Andrew Quartus says there must be a Andrew I and this one sure fits the bill)

Andrew II (had only one son named by his first wife Grace Andrew III)
born 24 Apr 1627, Somersetshire, England died 1 Mar 1704, Beverly, Essex, MA
Andrew Elliot's will dated 26 Feb., 1703-4
(Essex Wills, viii. 95) mentions relatives as follows:

His wife Mary "for the love, care, and faithfulness which she has always

Declaration of Regret - Salem Jurors

We whose names are under written, being in the Year 1692 called to serve as Jurors, in Court at Salem, on Tryal of many, who were by some suspected Guilty of doing Acts of Witchcraft upon the Bodies of sundry Persons:

We confess that we our selves were not capable to understand, nor able to withstand the mysterious delusions of the Powers of Darkness, and Prince of the Air; but were for want of Knowledge in our selves, and better Information from others, prevailed with to take up with such Evidence against the Accused, as on further consideration, and better Information, we justly fear was insufficient for the touching the Lives of any, Deut. 17. 6, whereby we fear we have been instrumental with others, tho Ignorantly and unwittingly, to bring upon our selves, and this People of the Lord, the Guilt of Innocent Blood; which Sin the Lord saith in Scripture, he would not pardon, 2 Kings 24. 4, that is we suppose in regard of his temporal Judgments. We do therefore hereby signifie to all in general (and to the surviving Sufferers in especial) our deep sense of, and sorrow for our Errors, in acting on such Evidence to the condemning of any person.

And do hereby declare that we justly fear that we were sadly deluded and mistaken, for which we are much disquieted and distressed in our minds; and do therefore humbly beg forgiveness, first of God for Christ's sake for this our Error; And pray that God would not impute the guilt of it to our selves, nor others; and we also pray that we may be considered candidly, and aright by the living Sufferers as being then under the power of a strong and general Delusion, utterly unacquainted with, and not experienced in matters of that Nature.

We do heartily ask forgiveness of you all, whom we have justly offended, and do declare according to our present minds, we would none of us do such things again on such grounds for the whole World; praying you to accept of this in way of Satisfaction for our Offence; and that you would bless the Inheritance of the Lord, that he may be intreated for the Land.

Andrew Elliott II, referred to as being; Lt. Andrew Elliott, Andrew Elliott Sr., Andrew Elliott clerk of Beverly, Andrew Elliott cordwinder (shoemaker), Andrew Elliott son-in-law to yeoman Henry Herrick, and Andrew Elliott landowner.

Andrew III married Mercy Shattuck, daughter to a famous member of The Religious Society of Friends (Quaker) Samuel Shattuck. Samuel Shattuck was vanquished from the colony of Massachusetts. Friends had been persecuted, four were hung in the colony. After meeting with the king for better treatment of Quakers, he came back to the colonies.

Andrew III was a master of a ferry boat, and he died be a master of such a vessel, and died as a boat master as recorded by his father;

Andrew (2)P born 30 Jan 1651, East Coker, Somerset, England died 12 Sep 1688, Beverly,

Being Aged about 37 yrs on the 12th Day of september about 10 of the clock in the morning according to the best information in the year of our Lord God 1688. (Deep meditation surely every man in his best Estate is wholly Vanitie).

Richard Shattuck most likely a relative owned a ferry boat. Though the births of Andrew III children will well recorded there was no record of baptisms which would indicated he became a Quaker also. This may have cause some resentment from his father because of his place in Beverly society. When Andrew II as clerk of Beverly recorded Andrew III he went through some deep meditation typical to Quaker worship.

Andrew IV

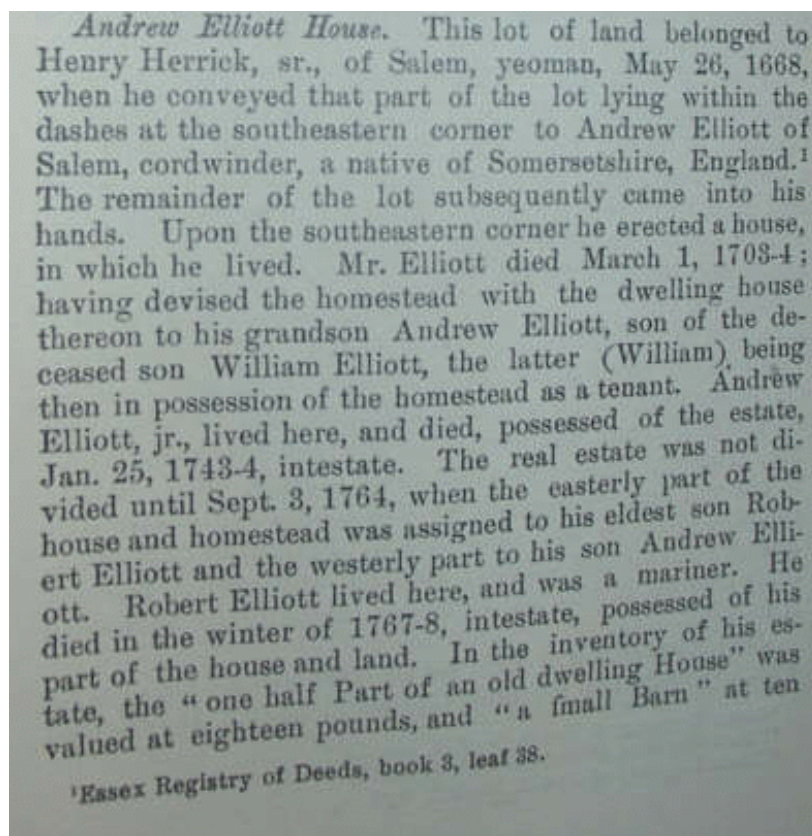

Andrew ELLIOTT Quartus, the Son of And'r & Mercy ELLIOTT, b. 11th of ye Seventh month, 1683

Quartus in Latin means fourth, so the record of this Andrew gave name of Andrew to the father, the grandfather, and great-grandfather.

The Williams beyond the first one;

William

In 1678 there were to cordwinders (shoe makers) list consequently for taking a fidelity oath for the town of Beverly. This was Andrew II, and William I. Since they were not father and son, I feel they must be brothers.

This is Andrew (II) Sr., his will lists a William son of his wife Mary but he would have been born after 1670.

Andrew is probably son William and Mary (Parker), born before that. This William very easily could be Daniels brother. Note; Mary s mother is Mary (Corey) Parker. Hung for witchcraft. I am looking to find a William in Framingham, but had so far no success.

Grace Woodier was born about 1628 in East Coker, Somersetshire, England. She died on 8 Feb 1652. She was sealed to her parents before 1970. Grace was baptized on 13 Oct 1934 in the Logan Utah temple. She was endowed before 1970. Grace married Andrew Elliott on 23 Apr 1649 in East Coker, Somersetshire, England. They were sealed on 24 Jan 1935 in the Salt Lake temple.

They had the following children:

M i William Elliott was born on 1 Jan 1635 in East Coker, Somersetshire, England. He was sealed to his parents before 1970. William was baptized on 13 Oct 1934 in the Logan Utah temple. He was endowed before 1970.

M ii Andrew Elliot Jr.

People of the LDS Church may think a young man may have a child at the age of seven. But to find a date for William cordwinder as a researcher I feel quite lucky. Because this date is about where I would guess it would be. Andrew would of course be the first of two brothers and William a good chance of being name shortly there after.

The following material on the first fourteen generations of the ancestry of John Kerry should not be considered either exhaustive or definitive, but rather as a first draft.

I'd like to thank David Curtis Dearborn, of the New England Historic-Genealogical Society, for his generous contribution of his collection of material on Sen. Kerry's paternal ancestry, Samuel C. Dotson for sharing the results of his research in Austria, and a correspondent (who wishes to remain anonymous) who provided some extracts from the Pinkus-Fraenkel Archive at the Leo Baeck Institute in New York. Gary Boyd Roberts, also of the New England Historic-Genealogical Society, helped with much of the New England ancestry. Kelsey Jackson Williams contributed the Blackwell ancestry. Other contributors include H on Howard F. Sachs, Joseph Cook, François Velde, and Julie Helen Otto (also of NEHGS).

It should be noted and William Eliot born Jan. 1654/5 since Andrew mother has a recorded of death for Feb 8. 1652, Grace Woodier can not be his mother, but William born Jan 1, 1635 could easily be his father since the father has a tendency to name the first son after the father.

Andrew Elliot's will dated 26 Feb., 1703-4
(Essex Wills, viii. 95) mentions relatives as follows:

His wife Mary "for the love, care, and faithfulness which she has always manifested for and towards me for forty years past and more."

I. Son William, his present wife Mary, and children Andrew, William, John, Judith, Mary, Emma, and Elizabeth.

II. Son Andrew (deceased), and his children Andrew, Samuel, Mercy and Grace.

III. Dau. Mary Woodbury, relict of Nicholas W., dec'd, and her daughter Judith.

IV. Dau. Emma Blower and her son Andrew Woodbury, and

V. Gr. ch. Joanna and Andrew Woodbury, children of his son-in-law Andrew Woodbury dec'd.

William I cordwinder (shoe maker) brother to Andrew II cordwinder this I believe is Daniel's Father.

William I was born Jan 1, 1635, would have been a new years baby but the new year started in March in 1635.

Notes;

The Elliots, along with members of the "Towne", "Bridges", & "Cloyes" families left the Salem area in 1693 for Framingham, Ma. (Salem's End Road) There again, is mention of Daniel in the early history of Framingham). My family notes indicate that Daniel was an early settler of Oxford, Ma., having owned and operated the Mill there in the early 1700's. Daniel's family include; (from J.C. Elliott, Dainel Elliott web site)

Understanding The Salem Witch Trials

But Boyer and Nissenbaum didn't stop there. They also found proof that religion and difference of lifestyle played a big role in the accusations as well. The villagers of Salem were very suspicious toward Quakers and people who lived around them and befriended them. John and Elizabeth Proctor were both accused of witchcraft because they owned a tavern and sheltered Quakers. The people of Salem didn't like this and found a way to deal with them. "Even more upsetting to Puritans, friends caught up in their enthusiasm would "quake" when the holy spirit possessed them, behavior that seemed all too much like the fits of the Salem afflicted", (Davidson, Lytle; p41).

It may be noted that it is felt Daniel is from the same property as Andrew Jr (Quaker).

The results of the trials were as follows;

guilty of witchcraft and condemned to death - hanged, June 10, 1692

Bridget Bishop

guilty of witchcraft and condemned to death - hanged, July 19, 1692

Sarah Good, Sarah Wildes, Elizabeth Howe, Susannah Martin and Rebecca Nurse

guilty of witchcraft and condemned to death - hanged, August 19, 1692

George Burroughs, Martha Carrier, George Jacobs, John Proctor and John Willard.

Elizabeth Proctor was temporarily reprieved due to her pregnancy.

Giles Corey was pressed to death for refusing a trial on September 19, 1692.

guilty of witchcraft and condemned to death - hanged, September 22, 1692

Martha Corey, Mary Easty, Alice Parker, Mary Parker, John Willard, Ann Pudeator, Wilmott Redd, Margaret Scott and Samuel Wardwell

Lydia Dustin, from Redding, was jailed May 2nd in Boston and died there March 10th, 1693.

Sarah Warren Prince Osborne, died in a Boston jail while awaiting trial May 10th, 1692.

Daniel's father-in-law Peter Cloyse's second wife was Sarah (Towne) Proctor, step mother to Daniel's wife. She escaped hanging but her sisters Rebecca (Towne) Nurse and Mary (Town) Easty were hung. PBS American Playhouse put on Three Sovereigns for Sarah, 1984 a good reference of what happen. It is a series of three approximate fifty-five minute films.

The Crucible is a movie based on a drama written during the McCarthy era, and is not as accurate to history as Three Sovereigns for Sarah. The Crucible does have actors playing John and Elizabeth Proctor, Rev. John Hale, Rev. Samuel Paris, and John Hathorne judge. Giles Corey who is crushed to death is in both films.

Danver's History

Controversy over the boundaries of the farm, which had once belonged to Governor Winthrop, may have fueled the jealousy against Francis' family which resulted in his wife's death. In a sense, the village conflicts, though reflected in the witch trials, were a clash between the traditional leaders and the "new money" of Salem and Boston. Also, the Nurses disapproved of the Rev. Samuel Parris, the power-hungry pastor of the Danvers church which they usually attended. Francis had served on the church committee which first requested Parris to come to Danvers in 1688, but when Parris tried to hold out for more benefits for himself, Francis withdrew from the committee. On October 16, 1691, he was elected as one of five members of the Village Committee, all of who opposed Parris. In 1692 when the pastor did nothing to stop the "afflicted girls" from disturbing church services in Danvers, Francis and Rebecca stopped attending, along with Joseph Putnam and Rebecca's sister and brother-in-law Sarah and Peter Cloyse -- a decision that brought all of them into danger. Because of his opposition, Joseph had to keep a horse saddled for a quick escape, and Sarah and Rebecca were both convicted as witches.

Tithe/Tax records indicate that Andrew II Elliott Beverly landholder was assessed tithe/taxes in December 27, 1681 First Church of Salem. Andrew II, Note his daughter Emma was Baptized July 17, 1681 First Church of Beverly.

Daniel Elliot was assessed tithe/taxes First Church of Salem, for the payments Dec 89, and Jan 90/92 would indicate he was a landholder, during that period of time. The money was for the church including the salary of Rev. Samuel Parris.

In a genealogical chat page I found this.

2224. Daniel Elliot Jr.

Have researched Daniel m. 1686 Hannah Cloyce. He testified at Salem Witch Trials in 1692 that he was about 27 years of age....so he would have been born 1665/6. The Elliots with Daniel's inlaws and other relatives moved from Salem Village to Framingham 1693 after Hannah's step mother had been tried as a witch and escaped hanging. Hannah's two step-aunts were actually hanged (or is it hung) as witches. Read in one book were Hannah's step mother escaped and friends hid her until spring when they moved to Framingham. From Framingham the Elliots moved to Oxford, then a few miles across the township line into the Sutton area. Have just been told that Daniel's father was Andrew b. 1627 by second wife--half brother of Andrew b. 1651. No proof as yet. Jane

My grandmother Olive I. Elliott Tuthill was a direct descendant of your Daniel. He testified at Salem Witch trials in 1692 that he was about 27 years of age! I do not think his father was Daniel....I lived in MA for over 15 years and researched....Think his father was Andrew by his second wife. Andrew b. 1651 was Daniel's half brother. The Daniel that moved to Framingham, Oxford, Sutton was the Daniel b. ca 1665/6. He had a son Daniel....don't get the son mixed up for the father of Daniel b. 1665/6 (your 1662) Jane

And felt Jane was correct that Daniel could be Andrew (III) Jr. half brother. Well I feel the results that were are real close. Would be considered as first cousins. If they were closer in age they would be treated as brothers.

I also thought Daniel was most likely Scotch/Irish (Framingham was a Scotch/Irish settlement) and Daniel may have been indentured. The first Elliott I found was indenture but could connect him to the family.

Basic Structure to the Elliots

Andrew I
Andrew II -----	William I
Andrew III	William II-----Daniel
Andrew IV	William III

If I were to guess the name of Andrew I father's name, it would be William.

It is hope genealogists will challenge this information.

What I have given previously is more like an hypothesis that I feels needs testing.

Information gather has been listed but I am sure there is more information out there.

It was structured based on land but have not found land deeds for Daniel who was access tithe/taxes from my understanding based on land.

Andrew Sr, in his own pen that Andrew Jr is his only son.

Information in Andrew Sr. will says he has a son name William Grace was deceased when William was born and he had not yet married his second wife Mary.

But William being in attendance and from the same household with Andrew Sr. and family shows more than a son like relation.

Andrew Sr. was an accuser which recanted within the year. Daniel was a defended and have to move for family safe to the colony at Salem s End; Framingham, then on to further to Oxford.

William may not have been used as a family name because a William Elliot was on a witch jury, and he was not one which recanted.

John, Jonathan, Ebenezer three of Daniel s children names are common to the Dodges and Woodburys which were form East Coker, Somerset England.

It is felt Daniel was born in East Coker an came to America at about the age of 5 in 1670 but have not found information which would help verify it.

Hopefully more information will come forth, and genealogists will be able to use the above information. When using inductive/deductive reasoning it takes a lot of thought

Sincerely Mark S. Elliott son of Loren and Great-grandson of Daniel
